

KING JAMES VERSION (KJV) Bible IS God's Word

KJV can be trusted, Other Bible Versions can be helpful

“We believe the Bible to be the inspired and only infallible written Word of God.”

THE above phrase is the first line in the Statement of Faith for many Christian Churches. Today, this statement's validity is under attack.

- There are 50+ Non-KJV English Bible Versions on BibleGateway.com (Oct 2016).
- When the contents of these versions are compared —specifically a comparison of select passages with the corresponding passages in the King James Bible (KJV) —the reader discovers that the meaning of passages between the versions differ and the foundation of Christian doctrine has been altered from that in the KJV.
- Non-KJV Bible Versions contain some passages that add to or take away from those written in the KJV. Sometimes this is done by brackets and/or footnote explanations that question whether the passages are truly God's Word. Some passages reflect doctrinal error. For God's Word to be “inspired” and “infallible” there cannot be multiple meanings and multiple doctrines in multiple Bibles.
- For more detail on the above, reference: “Look What's Missing” by David W. Daniels, <http://www.chick.com/catalog/books/1271.asp> .
- God magnifies His Word above His name and promised to preserve His Word for us.

“... for thou hast magnified thy word above all thy name.” Psalm 138:2

“The words of the Lord are pure words...

thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever.” Psalm 12:6-7

The King James Bible (KJV) Bible is not just another translation. It IS THE “inspired and only infallible written Word of God.”

Non-KJV Bible versions can clarify some of the KJV language, but the KJV is God's Authoritative Word.

- Non-KJV Bible Versions can be helpful to the modern reader in understanding some of the ancient words in the King James Version Bible that are no longer used today. Additionally, Bible scholars have supplied many helpful resources for understanding the Bible using non-KJV Bible versions.
- With all of the above in mind, the author of “Know His Word” Bible Studies has decided not to “throw the baby out with the bath water”. By the leading of God's Holy Spirit, Jennifer B. Price utilizes the scriptural foundation of the KJV Bible for all Bible Study and uses other Bible versions as tools to facilitate the studies knowing that God's Holy Spirit will never lead me wrong. For example, “Know His Word Bible Study” utilizes the “New Living Translation One Year Chronological Bible” with explanations based on conducting the study using the KJV Bible.
- Pray: God's Holy Spirit will Open Your Understanding and Guide you into ALL truth. Psalm 119:18, John 16:13, 1 Cor. 2:10-12, John 16:13

“For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God.”

Romans 8:14
